Day 5: Transfer to Yerevan — Armenia

Armenia – A country of ancient traditions and breathtaking landscapes, Armenia is known for its deep-rooted Christianity, UNESCO World Heritage sites, warm hospitality, and rich cultural heritage nestled among the Caucasus Mountains.

The location of Haghpat Monastery was chosen so that it overlooks the Debed River in northern Armenia's Lori region. It was built partway up a hillside on a site chosen to afford protection and concealment, but also because of the monks' monastic humility.

Sevanavank is a monastic complex located on a peninsula at the northwestern shore of Lake Sevan in the Gegharkunik Province of Armenia, not far from the town of Sevan. Initially the monastery was built at the southern shore of a small island.

we will visit the places:

- ✓ Hagphat Monastery
- ✓ Sevan Lake
- ✓ Sevanavak Monastery

Night in Erevan.

Day 6: Erevan city tour

Erevan – The vibrant capital of Armenia, Yerevan is one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. It combines ancient history with Soviet-era architecture and a lively modern culture, offering visitors rich museums, cozy cafes, and stunning views of Mount Ararat.

Garni Temple – Located just outside Yerevan, Garni is the only standing Greco-Roman temple in the former Soviet Union. Perched above the Azat River Gorge, it offers breathtaking views and is a symbol of Armenia's pre-Christian heritage.

Symphony of Stones – Found near the Garni Gorge, the Symphony of Stones is a natural wonder made up of tall basalt columns that resemble organ pipes. This geological formation looks like a man-made masterpiece but is entirely the work of nature.

We will visit the places:

- ✓ Garni
- ✓ Gerhard
- ✓ Symphony of stones
- ✓ Erevan city tour

Night in Erevan.

Day 7: Back to Georgia.

Vardzia & Rabati: Echoes of Power and Faith

Vardzia is a breathtaking cave monastery, carved into the cliffs of southern Georgia. Built in the 12th century under Queen Tamar's reign, it once housed over 2,000 monks and stretched across 13 levels. As you explore hidden chapels, wine cellars, and frescoes untouched by time, you'll feel the spiritual heartbeat of medieval Georgia.

Just a short drive away stands Rabati Fortress in Akhaltsikhe — a stunning blend of cultures and eras. Originally built in the 9th century, today it stands proudly restored with churches, mosques, museums, and gardens that reflect Georgia's multicultural past.

Together, Vardzia and Rabati offer a unique journey through stone and soul — a testament to Georgia's strength, resilience, and timeless beauty.
